MEDIA RELEASE

MANAGEMENT TRANSITION AT THE SWISS FINANCE COUNCIL

Brussels, 1 June 2018 – Five years after its foundation in 2013, the Swiss Finance Council (SFC) has established itself as a broad platform for dialogue and exchange of views and information on EU developments in an international perspective. With stakeholder exchanges around the importance of international trade and investment, opportunities to strengthen the availability of long-term finance, the implications of digitalization in financial services and ways to enhance international regulatory consistency and coordination, in addition to many bilateral interactions, the SFC has embedded itself in the regulatory policy discussion in Brussels.

As the SFC moves into the next phase, Judith Hardt, Managing Director of the SFC Brussels Office, will pursue other opportunities. On behalf of the Council, Chairman Alexandre Zeller thanks Judith Hardt for her valuable contribution and wishes her all the best in her future activities.

During the transition period, the leadership of the office will be assumed by Thomas Pohl and Lucia Waldner, members of the SFC Brussels Management Committee (pohl@swissfinancecouncil.org; Waldner@swissfinancecouncil.org)
